The Camp Tekoa weekend offers a chance to spend time with God, relax, and enjoy leisure activities with others from our DUMC church family.

EVERYONE IS INVITED

Singles, those who are retired, single-parent families, couples with and without children, grandparents.... We will gather and grow as a family of God!

ABOUT CAMP TEKOA (www.camptekoa.org)

Camp Tekoa is a beautiful United Methodist camp located in the mountains of N.C. near Hendersonville, only two hours from Davidson. Rustic cabins and a dining hall surround a picturesque lake with numerous activities.

FUN FOR EVERYONE

- Get to know new friends
- Rock on the porch
- Sing
- Canoe
- Go for a hike
- Climb a tree
- Play frisbee golf
- Fish
- Enjoy a campfire & s'mores
- Spend some quiet time
- Play board games and four-square
- Ride a zip-line
- Climb a wall
- Swim
- Participate in worship together

Tentative additions for this year:

- Hike at DuPont State Park
- Picnic at the apple orchard

ACCOMODATIONS

We will bunk in cabins and lodges. Cabins are rustic, but comfortable. Most beds are bunk. Please bring your own portable crib, if needed. Depending on registration, we may have youth, singles, couples, and family cabins. In any event, there will be a place for you!

* There are usually two-three families assigned per room. If there is a family you would like to bunk with, please note this on your registration.

DINING

We will eat in a dining hall that seats 180 people overlooking the lake. The dining hall has a wonderful porch with rockers, as well as a covered pavilion with a fire-place.

PACKING

Be sure to pack:

- Bible
- Sleeping bag or twin sheets and a blanket
- Pillow
- Toiletries
- Towels
- Jacket or sweatshirt
- Rain gear
- Old shoes (no open toes)
- Shoes appropriate for hiking
- Travel alarm
